FREE - AT THE JANE PICKENS THEATRE

HERE IT COMES!

Next weekend is it - the milestone will have been achieved. It will be our RHPS Aniversary Weekend. We will be celebrating one straight year of the RHPS at the Jane Pickens Theatre. We also will celebrate the begining of the sixth overall year of the show (before this year, the show was seasonal) in Newport, unprecedented in the Greater Rhode Island area.

One straight year, which means surviving the cold winter months, is something everyone who comes to the show can be proud. The cast thanks the audience for helping us keep the show here. We couldn't have stayed here without you. There will be a full cast on both nights (Fri & Sat). We're ready. We are hoping as many of you can make it as possible. Bring your friends. We need all the noise we can get!

WHAT A DEAL!

There's extra good news for the audience next weekend. Anyone coming to the show either Friday or Saturday night and paying a regular admission will receive a pass to see any show at the theatre FREE. We hope you will use the free pass to see the RHPS on another night, but you can also use it to see any other movie here. Not bad, eh? Think about the options to take advantage of. Come Friday night to see the show, get a free pass, and then come Sat. night for free, or come any other night. Better yet, come both Fri. and Sat. night, get a free pass each night, and come to see the show at 2 later dates for free. Work it any way you want. It's your free pass(es). No matter how you look at it, it's an unbeatable deal. I'm so sure of this, that, if you can find a better deal, come up and tell me about it and I'll eat my hat!
