

PROVIDENCE ROCKY

VOL. 2 NO. 1 September 9-10, 1983 FREE - AT THE CABLE CAR CINEMA & CAFE

LIFE UNDER DEATH

There was a fire burning once a long time ago. It burned strong for a good amount of time, and it even spread to other places. Eventually, due to a dying of the winds, the space that the fire burned became smaller. The flames grew tired and the temperature dropped in a slow but steady process until the day the last flame went out of sight. No eyes could see the fire anymore. There was just a covering of dead and burnt substance where the fire had once burned. But then, on an early September night, a gentle but strong wind blew away the dead burnt substance and activated an unknown spark that was unseen by outsiders' eyes but still felt by those who had stayed near to feel it's warmth. The fire started to grow a little bit bigger and could be seen now. People began to wonder where it would lead to.

BACK IN TOWN

After an absense of 3 months, the "ROCKY HORROR PICTURE SHOW" returns from movie heaven once again to the great city of Providence, a city that a lot of people like. The Cable Car Cinema and Cafe, already known as the home of other occult films, has brought behind it's doors THE ultimate cult film in "ROCKY." "ROCKY" was previously shown at the Cinerama (which, by the way, you will find has been slightly restructured if you happen to take a drive down Hope Street) for 3 years and at the Avon for 9 weeks.

FUN TIME

We hope everyone has fun and comes to see the show all the time. Strange as it seems, it's the one place I know I can go and find something different every week. The show is not just a movie, it is a happening twice a week that can not be classified or grouped in any other category. The fun that people can have at the show is very simple, which is the basis for the film's unarguable success throughout time accross the entire English speaking world (and Japan too!). The fun is so simple that most people can not explain why they go back again and again. It's not very complicated and explainable, it's just fun. To those of you who came here tonight - You have made a very intelligent decision.

NEWSPAPER

Yup. There will be a newspaper. This is it. See it. It's no big deal, but it just occupied 2 minutes of your time and kept you out of trouble. You could have been out on the streets instead. There will be this and that in the paper, but, most importantly, there will be a paper very often (maybe every week). So, what is lacked in quality will be made for in quantity. So what if there are misspellings, at least you'll have something to read new every week. You'll have it in your hands and be, if not entertained, at least occupied. Call this paper cheap, short, unprofessional, abundant in areas of possible improvement, or just plain bad. But there will be one thing it will have that I guarantee - CHARM. See if you can find that in the Providence Journal!
