WORDS TO THE MOVIE

"SCIENCE FICTION DOUBLE FEATURE"

Michael Rennie was ill
 The day the earth stood still
 But he told us where we stand
 And Flash Gordon was there
 In silver underwear
 Claude Rains was the invisible man
 Then something went wrong
 For Fay Wray and King Kong
 They got caught in a celluloid jam
 Then at a deadly pace
 It came from outer space
 And this is how the message ran:

I knew Leo G. Carroll
 Was over a barrel
 When tarantula took to the hills
 And I really got hot
 When I saw Jeanette Scott
 Fight a Triffid that spits poison and kills
 Dana Andrews said prunes
 Gave him the runes
 And passing them used lots of skills
 And when worlds collide
 Said George Pal to his bride
 I'm gonna give you some terrible thrills

WHAT DO YOU WANT ANYWAY?

If anyone has any good ideas on what they would like to see more of in this newspaper, please write your suggestions to this address. If anyone out there would like to put an article in, bring it forward at the show to me (I'm usually dressed up as Riff) or send it along in the mail. You don't have to be in the cast to contribute. It is always interesting to hear different people's ideas on things. And if you don't state your ideas, that's all they'll remain - your ideas. What good are they to you when you already know them? So, please, if you have got something, SAY IT! (And if you are not too carefull, you might make a difference). Also, we are opening up a new community service around here. We are expanding our horizons so that now we will answer or comment on anybody's problems on anything. There are ears and eyes here ready to be of service to anyone's mouth and hands. It's a FREE clinic, just like this newspaper. So it's there. So take it if you want to release any tention and frustrations that even the RHPS could not totally withdraw out of you.
