

PAY ATTENTION TO THE MOVIE

I have been going to the RHPS for years now and, for the life of me, I still can't figure out what is going on in the movie because of all the noise in the theatre. People are always screaming out lines and throwing rice and toilet paper around. Why don't they just walk in, sit down, be quiet, and watch the movie. Then, maybe some of us could hear the words to the movie and figure it out.

You have to pay attention to the movie to get anything out of it. How can you learn anything if you're getting into squirt gun fights? Quit acting like a bunch of kids and grow up. We're adults now and we should be a little more mature than that.

Another thing that bugs me is the way some of you people come dressed to the movie. You might think this is some sort of Halloween party every week. Don't you people have any self-respect about how you look in front of each other?

But the thing that bothers me the most is the vile and course language I've overheard. Some of the words, and you know which ones I mean, are particularly offensive to my ears. I will not stand for that sort of conduct. If these and the above-mentioned actions do not cease, I will discontinue my patronage at the Rocky Horror Picture Show.

Signed - Holier than all of you
