

HERE WE GO AGAIN!

For the fourth time in the past 12 months, the Rocky Horror Picture Show has uped and moved to another theatre. Many people still think the movie is playing at the Cinerama, but if they go there and try to see it all they will find is a CVS store.

After leaving the Cinerama, Rocky traveled down Hope Street to Thayer Street and played at the Avon for 9 weeks. Rhode Islanders suffered for the entire summer while waiting for the show to reappear. At last, it did, at the Cable Car on South Main Street.

The show lasted 13 weeks there and then went to the Fairlawn Cinema on Smithfield Avenue in Pawtucket. This was the first time the movie left the boundaries of Providence since it's initial area appearance at the Showcase Cinemas in Seekonk (You didn't that!). The show lasted 9 weeks at the Fairlawn. Last week, there was no show anywhere. But this week, we are all back together again at the Warwick Mall Cinemas.

HELLO

To those of you who don't know about the show, the cast would like to welcome you to an experience that you have never had before. We hope you like what happens at the show and return as much as possible. Most outsiders don't understand why people keep coming back to see the same movie over and over again, but what they can not realize is that no two nights have ever been the same, all shows being as distinct as snowflakes.

We are always open to suggestions about how to make the show better, and you can come up to us and tell us or write to us at the below address.

We of the cast, and many of you of the audience, have followed Rocky Horror religiously throughout the last five years and we are hoping things work out well here. We are excited about the opportunity to continue on with the tradition of Rocky Horror that grows deeper and deeper as time flows by.

HELP

The cry for help is a never-ending one. We are always in need of cast members, article writers, or anything else you can think of. You don't have to join the cast to submit something to the newspaper, so if you've got something, send it or bring it along! Everyone who reads this paper is part of the show.

Help to the newspaper can be an article, a crossword puzzle, a word search, a maze, or anything about the show that you think at least 7 people somewhere would like to read. And, for Bog's sake, don't think about, do it!

Goodbye until next week. Be good.
