MR. BONES IS WHOLE AGAIN

Last week, (yes, I know you didn't get it - read below) we spoke of the distressful situation concerning the feet of Sizemore T. Bones. I asked all of you to check the bottom of your shoes to see if anything was stuck there and told you of our plight searching through garbage bins and burn barrels to find the missing feet. Well, gang, heh heh, guess where they turned up? Yup. Bottom of my shoes.

I just assumed not to check myself because I'm careful where I walk and figured that they couldn't be stuck to me. That's why I had everybody just go ahead the last 3 weeks checking through garbage and ashes.

Whatever. It doesn't matter how or what events led up to finding the feet, as long as we got 'em. Right gang! Right?

SORRY ABOUT THAT

WARWICK ROCKY (why accept personal blame when there's an impersonal institution to take the brunt of it) apologizes for the lack of a new issue last week. Actually, there was a new issue, but there was not a distribution of that issue. The search for a new copier has temporarily ended, but access to it was delayed. Hopefully, though, you are reading this week's issue and things are a rollin' again.

AMENDS

As a reward for the loyalty to my, er (gosh, I can't go that far in returning from impersonal institution to personal gratification), the paper's followers, copies of last weeks issue will be available to those who want it. For that matter, if there's any copy you've missed that you want a copy of, let us know. You will get it.

HISTORICAL DEMANDS

To those of you who are really ambitious about the history of the "ROCKY" newspapers before we came here to Warwick, let me know. All issues from NEWPORT ROCKY, NEW ENGLAND ROCKY, and PROVIDENCE ROCKY (3 volumes) have been preserved (They are cluttering up my draws. There's more to the ROCKY newspapers than just the corner of my kitchen table).

MR. HEAD

It use to be that when we didn't have a Criminologist for the cast, we had Mr. Head do the part. Now, when we don't have a Crim, we just don't do the part. So Mr. Head has little to do now. And he's getting mad.

Most people don't seem to care though. Mr. Head doesn't have a body and there's nothing he can do about it.

Happy Friday the 13th
