THE ROCKY CHRONICLES

by Andy Lamond

After arriving and setting up as systems, Frank proceded to begin his aformentioned mission.

His'first human contact was Columbia. He had very little trouble with his "conversion" of her in the back of a pickup truck. They had been having some problems with her boyfriend Eddie delivery boy.

Eddie, still in love with Columbia. confronted Frank with this and demanded that Frank break up with Columbia. This Frank did with almost as much haste as it took for him to begin his "conversion" of Eddie. After long and difficult efforts, Frank totally turned Eddie's loaf, or so it seemed.

In time, Frank became bored with Eddie and decided to turn his skill as a scientist and create a human lover of and for his own desires. While Frank was spending time in his lab assembling various parts of human anatomy, Eddie's dislike for Frank grew into a great hatred. Also during this time, Eddie (with Columbia's help) discovered who Frank and company were, and what their basic mission was.

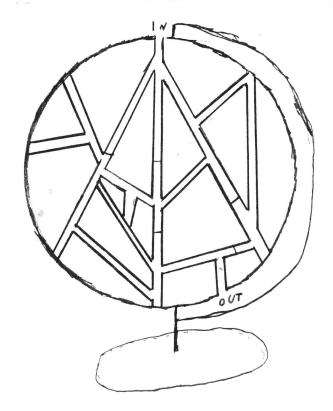

It was a hot summer night when Eddie decided to spread his wings and fly like a bat out of hell and warn the world of Frank's evil intentions.

To be continued in the weeks to come. Next week you learn the details of Eddie's fight:
