IT'S BETTER WITH A VIRGIN by Jon Winkleman

As you may have noticed, crowds have been shrinking at an alarming rate. As a Rocky fan, it is your sacred duty to keep up the faith and support your favorite cult film.

This means spreading the faith, so bring many, many virgins with you each time you go to the show. Besides increasing the audience size (which makes the show more exciting), you will astound these newcomers with your vast knowledge of alternate dialogue and time warping techniques, thereby making you look very cool! (Hint: the more often you see the show, the more dialogue you will learn, hence the cooler you shall appear.) Besides, Rocky is essentially a group experience that is better enjoyed in a large group of your peers.

Before joining the cast, I always brought at least one virgin along with me each time I went to the show. I even helped convince my friends to hold the cast party for my school play at Rocky, 30 virgins deflowered in one night (I dare anyone to beat that).

I still actively push virgins I know to come to the show and check it out. So please do your fair share. Remember, it's your show, you are a major part of the evening festivities, so please keep Rocky alive and bring a virgin.

A TRIBUTE TO MY FRIENDS by Mr. Prew

HI! Enjoying the show? I hope so, we try very hard to make this the best Rocky Horror show in Southeastern New England. Did you know the Prov. cast spans four states and is composed of the best of three previous casts. Some of these people are as dedicated to the show as some people are to their religion (in fact I call this show my religion). If you've followed the show from Prov. to Pawt. to here or even Newport or Groton then some of these people might look familiar to you. Take the guy playing Eddy on Sat. a more dedicated fan you won't find a good natured and intelligent fellow whose love of the movie is exceeded only by his love to party. Or the man in the wheelchair. To accurately do this gentleman justice would be another article so I won't try here. Then there is Riff Raff an honest and upright gentleman whom I am proud to call my friend. And the girl who plays Frankie - a rare mixture of intelligence beauty and personality and of course Magenta a warm and kind individual. There are many more cast members some I don't know as well as others but I am proud to be associated with all of them so at the end of tonights show applaud not just for the show but for the cast. Write a fan letter just say thanks but for God sake do something!
