

WARWICK ROCKY

VOL. 1 NO. 29 August 31-September 1, 1984 FREE - AT THE WARWICK MALL CINEMAS

WHAT A SHOW-OH-OH

Each weekend thousands all over the country rush to see the Rocky Horror Picture Show. Many are audience participants and there are some who perform in the various casts. Warwick Rocky has a Friday, Saturday, regular, and amateur cast; not to mention a various amount of substitutes. The cast works along with the audience to make each show unique and enjoyable. Besides the fact that the Rocky Horror Picture Show is just plain fun; co-cast and audience members become like family. All of us, who were strangers, before being introduced through this movie. So, if you're looking for a great way to meet new people; write for the paper, become part of the cast, or just support the Rocky Horror Cult by returning to the Warwick Theatre as often as you can. It's always nice to hear from people. Don't be shy!

Oh, and seeing as though this is my last weekend with Warwick Rocky, I'd like to say publicly; thanks for a terrific summer! I'm glad I was "considered to be a candidate for the amateur cast." I've made a lot of new friends whom I will always remember. "Master dinner is prepared!" Thanks to, Stella Nielsen, Ken Rowlinson (Yes, Ken, and what of the floor show? I miss you!), Peter Iannotti, Shirley Phillips, Len Lawrence, Dan Levesque, John Winkleman, Jill Winkleman, Michelle Therrien, Jim DiMeglio, Frank Colasanto, Sheilarae Carpentier, Candace Betz, Patricia Quinn, Richard O'Brien, Susan Sarandon, and, of course, Roy (What a guy-uy-uy..) Rossi, for making this all possible. Goodbye and good luck!

Terri Rosenblatt

CONGRADULATIONS to Terri for her acceptance to the acting school in New York (shamefully, I don't know the official name, so I'll wait till next week to publish it). Our loss is certainly their gain. We hope to hear from you while you are gone, and see you whenever you get back. Meanwhile, do the best you can (which we know is excellent) in pursuing your dreams.

WHO DARES TO THROW THE CROUTONS

by Mr. Prew
(and this time he means business!)

Being a cast member gives me some advantages one of which is being able to observe the audience which is one of the most important parts of the show (doesn't that make you feel important). One of the things I've observed is that SOMEONE is throwing croutons instead of toast! Come on now toast isn't that hard to make and not very expensive. If you can afford the price of the show plus a squirt gun and rice you can certainly afford to bring toast. Croutons how cheap can you get.

LAST WEEK'S CROSSWORD

1	E	N	T	E	R
2	V				I
3	E	O	D	Y	S
4	M		O		K
5	I	N	T	O
6	W	O			A
7	G	R	E	A	T

Be here in the following weeks. Yet another Crossword coming up (bigger than this one), Terri Rosenblatt's Total Trivia, and more of Ray's Mazes! If you are going away to school, let me know. You can still get WR. Happy Labor Day.