Don't Dream It, Be It

What ever happened to Fay Wray,
That delicate, satin-draped frame?
As it clung to her thigh, how I started to cry.
'Cause I wanted to be dressed just the same.

Give yourself over to absolute pleasure.
Swim the warm waters of sins fo the flesh.
Erotic nightmares beyond any measure.
And sensual daydreams to treasure forever.
Can't you just see it! Oh, oh, oh!

Don't dream it, be it! Don't dream it, be it!
Don't dream it, be it! Don't dream it, be it!

Ach! We've got to get out of this trap,
Before this decadence saps our wills!
I've got to be strong and try to hang on,
Or else my mind may well snap!
And my life will be lived for the thrill!

It's beyond me, help me, Mommy!
God bless Lilly St. Cyr!

Articles Anyone

Know why I am writing this? It's because I can't think of anything else to write. I've tried to write a theme about Abe Lincoln's connection with Rocky Horror, but I'm bugging out! How about a little HELP. How about some typed-up articles for the RIR, eh?

Horrors!

THE film's been out 10 years and made $60 million, but the South African government has just uncovered The Rocky Horror Show — and banned it. The Pretoria folks had thought it was just another American sci-fi flick until someone decided to screen it and found out the main character is a transvestite vampire.
