

Next Week-TOGA!

You wear your togas and we'll wear ours. That's the deal during next weekend's (Sept 12-13) Toga party at the CTC during the RHPS. Any color or style are permissible as long as minimum coverage of the bod is maintained. While the audience comes dressed in Rome's most pleasurable attire, the cast will do the show also dressed in Togas.

We always try to do new things here at the CTC, that bring out yet more aspects of the spirit of Rocky Horror. Toga night therefore seemed an inevitable event to take place here. Anyone not coming to the show in a toga will still be allowed in, but you're going to look a little weird, don't you think?

Until next week, beware of sleeping Romans.

RR

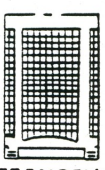

The Pin and the Prize

One of the most frequently asked questions I'm asked is "What is the door prize anyway?" Some (too many) people then proceed to answer the question with a none-too-unique joke "It's a door. Ho. Ho. He he." I laughed the first time I heard it. And even then it was only out of politeness.

For those who don't know what that prize is that ticket stubs are read off every night and that gets people's names printed below in RIR every week, I'll tell you. It's a free pass to see RHPS. And to make things juicier, management has added a RHPS pin to the prize. So, don't throw away those stubs!

LAST WEEK AT CTC

ATTENDANCE

COLLECTIONS

PRIZES

FRI	71	$ 4.20	Danielle DeRoche
SAT	53	$ 2.79	Alex Mooza

Fan Applauds New Section

Whatever happened to Saturday night? I have no idea. As a matter of fact, I don't even know what happened to Friday nights, either. I was really becoming very disappointed with Cumberland Twin's productions of "Rocky." I came to CTC on Saturday night, August 23. I was expecting a huge water war (as usual) and mediocre efforts from some of the cast. Boy was I wrong.

When I walked in, I was delighted to see signs on the walls which read "Safe Area." What a good idea! Unfortunately, nobody used it, but it's nice to know it's there. I was also glad you put an end to water gun refills. They should be used in one scene and one scene only! You shouldn't have to refill them! I was also glad to see monitors keeping people in line. Finally, I don't have to get hit in the back of the head with a water gun from behind a huge wall.

I didn't see any "hacking" as you call it in RIR # 68. The cast and audience were at an all-time peak. I hope we have more nights like this in the future.

I believe the spirit of the RHPS has finally come to the Cumberland Twin Cinemas.

With absolute pleasure,
Donna Levin

Thanks for the letter, Donna. We are trying to turn things around at the CTC for both the cast and the audience.

Actually, refills still are permitted, but only until the rain scene. We are not cutting off, just leveling off.

As far as getting squirted from behind the wall, only wimps do that because there's no sport in it.