Last week, we spoke to you about what we COULD tell you was in store for 1987, although most of it was unpredictable. Well, let's tell you what we know will happen:

March 20-21: The 100th week of RHPS at CTC. We'll have to do something about that.

April 24-25: Anniversary Weekend. CTC celebrates it's 2nd full year completed.

October 31: Halloween is on a Saturday. You'll have all day to prepare for this one.

Obviously, there will be much more by way of big events in 1987, but those are the sure ones. The rest is unpredictable. So, don't veer too far or you miss something you wish you didn't.

Spot Thanks

The list of names is too long to list here, but I'd like to give Spot thanks to all those who contributed to helping pay off the Spotlight. Everyone coming to our Cast party contributed $5, and some people went beyond that. I would especially like to thank Sheilarae Carpentier, who not only hosted and planned the party, but who also financed it. A detailed listing of contributions will appear in our new and upcoming sister publication, The RI Cast Newsletter.

TRINITY REP.

The RI Cast's Mike Frongillo plays the part of Leroy in the play "Roger Billy in the Year of the Comet." The play is part of a trilogy put on by Trinity Square Repertory Company as part of Providence's First Night celebration. It has shown this week and continues into this weekend.
