Handicap Night

This Friday night only will be Handicap Night. The cast will perform the show with impairments of any nature they can think of. Stupid idea, you say? Well, when you keep breaking records for low attendance, you've got to do something to amuse yourself. So join in on the fun! RR

THE BEST OF ROCKY
: Rocky Holidays
Compiled by Sheilarae Carpentier

Holidays have special significance to our editor, Roy James Rossi. They give him something to write about in the Rocky (or sometimes they don't - you'll see).

In continuance with our series, THE BEST OF ROCKY, the following excerpts were taken from New England Rocky (published in Connecticut), Providence Rocky, Volumes 2 and 3, Warwick Rocky and Cumberland's Rhode Island Rocky.

NER, 12/25/82
Oh yeah. Almost forgot. HOHOHO. HEHEEHE. Merry XMAS. Joy to the World. LALALA. Candles burning. Money. Yule Tide. Peace on Earth. Money. You're nice and wonderful now. Presents. Cards. Christmas Trees. Money. Santa Claus! Money. Did I forget anything?

PR, 10/28-30/83
(Halloween) Yes, this is our holiday and it is a time to let the rest of the world know just who we are. As loyal transylvanians, it is our time to take a stand. We must make it a point to go to all the Halloween parties we can dressed in our wardrobes that originate from Rocky Horror. Let them see us! Let them all know that we are part, indeed a fixture, of their society. Make them accept our reality! We are one of them.

PR, 12/23-24/83
The problem I am addressing is the apathy towards RHPS during the holiday season. All you people are getting swept away by the stupid Yule Tide and forgetting about the show. What's the matter with you? Have you forgotten about the late night double feature picture show in lieu of some one-shot day dressed with pomp and glory? Sure, you'll come crawling back in here when it's all over, when the parties are all done, looking for a good time again after leaving us flat. It happens every year. Well, maybe things will be different this time around. Maybe, just when you're getting all excited again about Rocky Horror by the end of January or early February, you'll come into the theatre some Friday or Saturday night and we'll surprise you and show "Santa Claus is Coming to Town!" How would you like it if we showed "Santa Claus vs. the Martians" in mid-July? Where would your Christmas spirit be then? Would the Yule Tide be flowing then? Unlikely. It would look more like a dried up mud patch. I'm getting sick of all this. I can't wait till this is all over with and things return to normal. Then we'll see who's having a jolly time. Ho ho ho.

PR, 12/30-31/83
The LIPS will mark the beginning of the new year Saturday night. Kind of makes you wonder what has happened to you the past 12 months. Doesn't seem that long ago until you think of all that has happened to you since Jan 1, 1983. Think about it.

WR, 3/31-4/1/84
For those of you expecting some sort of joke or something just because it's April Fools weekend... forget it. Everybody seems to get off clowning around. Making fools of other people and playing pranks won't get you any progress in the real world, and it won't here either. When this weeks WARWICK ROCKY was

NEXT Two Guys per Girl Week

Next Weekend, both nights, is 2 guys per girl night. Any girl bringing 2 guys gets a FREE RHPS botton. The cast celebrates their way too. RR submitted to the typist, I was questioned about the lack of humor in it. I said "Hey! Just type out the paper. Exactly as it is - word for word. Don't go gettin any ideas of trying to make me look like a fool." So here you have it something reliable you can count on in the midst of the confusion all arou you. WARWICK ROCKY, we'll never change.

WR, 3/16-17/86
(St. Patrick's Day) What if the RHPS were made in Ireland with all Irish actor and actresses? Indeed, it is a question put to me every year about this tim One would have to imagine that Frank would doubtless have green curly hair, a would be the color of Rocky's shorts. Maybe they would call Columbia "Dublin" c "Belfast" or something like that. Perhaps Irish stew and potatoes would be serve at the dinner table. The possibilities are endless. If nothing else, the names t the movie's stars would probably go something like this:
Dr. Frank McFurter - Timmy O'Curry
Janie MacWeiss - Sue O'Sarandon
Bradie Murphy - Barnum O'Bostwick
Mic Mac - Richard O'Brian (a natural)
Green - Patti McQuinn
Dublin - Little Kelly
O'Rock - Peter McHInwood
Laddie - MacLoaf
Dr. Evie O'Scott - Johnie McAdams
The Crimie - Charlie O'Gray

Holy Leprechauns! I had fun doing that. Tuff shamrocks if you think it we stupid.

WR, 4/20-21/84
I've been doing a lot of thinking about the tie in between Easter and Rock Horror, and I've come to the conclusion that there is no connection. I shoulnd have even started this. forget it.

WR, 5/25-26/84
HAPPY WEDDING DAY
HAPPY MEMORIAL DAY
HAPPY 3-DAY WEEKEND
HAPPY ... HAPPY
HAPPY TO BE ALIVE

WR, 6/8-9/84
HAPPY FLAG DAY (even those with lightning bolts in them!)

WR, 6/29-30/84
Have a blastin', but safe, Fourth of July! BAVA-BOOM!!!

RIR, 6/28-29/85
Next Thursday, July 4, fireworks will be shot off in honor of the Rocky Horrr Picture Show all across the United States. Many families will conduct their ow displays of appreciation in their backyards. But if you want to get out, ther will be many public displays you can drive to in Rhode Island, Massachusetts and Connecticut. Members of our cast have been hard-pressed by many officials c some of these local displays to be present as special guests of honor, but v can't be everywhere all at once. We have decided to split up into small group with each group attending one of those local displays. We won't be dressed i cocutume, but we will be happy to sign autographs for those who can find a w to get to us. We are as excited about this as you are, and we hope to see all t you there!

RIR, 8/30-31/85
HAPPY LAEBOR DAY. School rats.

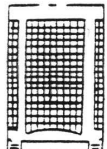

RIR, 10/31/85 & 11/1-2/85
No Throwing Pumpkins. Rumors that pumpkins would be allowed into the theatr this weekend are false. The same goes for gords and other traditional Hallowee fruit.

RIR, 2/7-8/86
I've tried to write a theme about Abe Lincoln's connection with Rocky Horror, bu I'm bugging out!

RIR, 2/21-22/86
Last week was President's Day, and this week is Washington's birthday, which o course leads to the question: If the RHPS cast were composed of US Presidents who would do the parts. The subject has been debated by many. Here are my picks FRANK N. FURTER - William Harrison. He gets it on looks. Harrison is ofte pictured with his collar up and his heavy eyebrows come the closest to matchin Frank's makeup. BRAD MAJORS - Richard Nixon. He gets it on nickname. RIFF RAFF James Madison. One of the few presidents to not cover his bald spot. His longe hair gave him a very Riff appearance. He's almost old enough by now. ROCK HORROR - Gerald Ford. Not known for being too bright due to numerous bumps t the head, Mr. Ford keeps in good enough shape to come closest to Rocky's phys: DR. SCOTT - Franklin Roosevelt. Wheelchair-bound. EDDIE - Teddy Roosevelt. If I could charge over the hill with the Rough Riders, he should be able to make i through a freezer door. CRIMINOLOGIST - Millard Fillmore. Everybody forgets hi There's a reason why. For the female parts, I went with First Ladies instea c Presidents (just to keep things serious). JANET WEISS - Rosalyne Carter. Sves and innocent. MAGENTA - Jacklyne Kennedy (Jackie O.). Hair stuytle, hair color, an eye makeup make here a cinch. COLUMBIA - Nancy Reagan. Hair style come closest.

RIR, 3/28-29/86
