RAY'S INTERVIEW

Rising Star

Ray Prew interviews Mike Frongillo, Saturday Frank, in February of 1987.

Ray: When did you join the show?
 Mike: The end of August last year.

Ray: Was that the first time you've seen the show?
 Mike: No, I'd seen the show 8 times before joining.

Ray: Is Frank your favorite part?
 Mike: Absolutely!

Ray: Have you done any others?
 Mike: I've done Brad, Dr. Scott (Criminologist, Riff, and Rocky since interview).

Ray: But Franky remains your favorite?
 Mike: Yes.

Ray: What do you figure is the biggest problem with the show?
 The stuff the audience brings in?
 Mike: Yes. It would be people who aren't in the spirit of the movie who just bring stuff to throw. There's a lot of history about Rocky Horror to know.

Ray: What do you like best about the show?
 Mike: A lot of people together who are into the same thing, like one big family.

Ray: So you'll be with this for some time then?
 Mike: Yes. I'll be with it to the end.

Ray: Do you have any outside theatre interests besides the show?
 Mike: Oh yes. I've just finished a show with Trinity Rep's First Night celebration. I've done different plays. Once I played Tim Curry's movie role in a production of "Annie."

Ray: Do you have any advice for upcoming young stars?
 Mike: It's a tough business. You have to really work at it.

Ray: If you could change anything at here at the show, what would it be?
 Mike: More public relations work and get a larger audience.

Ray: How many times have you seen the show?
 Mike: In the 40's by now (about 70 by June).

Ray: That's a wrap. Ed-RR
NEXT: Dick the Cop.

REVIEW - Witches of Eastwick

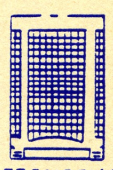

You don't need me telling you to see this movie, the movie critics are. Susan Sarandon (Janet) stars in this great looking, superbly costumed movie.

Susan is 12 years older than when she played Janet, and it shows. However, in the 2nd half of the film you'll find her very attractive as she lets down her long, red, volumous hair (is this a wig? I don't care).

The Providence Journal claims Susan has the "meatiest" role as one of the witches. She does: Jack Nicholson won't disappoint you either. I promise.
