CUMBERLAND TWIN CINEMAS*

Phil Pemberton interviews
Phil Pemberton...

- P- Hello Phil (firm manly hand-snake).
- P- Hey...(wink)...
- P- Before we start, i just want to tell you i admire your brilliant characterizations.
- P- Yean, well everyone nas their moments...(burp!).
- P- Do you have any hobbies besides the show?
- P- Yes... i like to sneak into ladies rooms and put up all the seats.
- P- You bastard!!!
Do you do any other acting?
- P- No.
- R- Have you ever done any in the past?
- P- i played a magic mushroom in an elementary production once. I got to sing "I'm a magic mushroom, yes indeed..."
Great tune, great tune.
- P- I guess you have to start (hee hee) small.
- P- Ugh... i get it. A mushroom's small, right? That was a disgusting pun. You know that?
- P- Sorry. i couldn't resist.
- P- you ought to learn to!!!
- P- in your opinion, how could we improve the snow?
(aside from doing it naked)
- P- i think the cast should stop taking things so seriously. The show itself is basically a joke. Why shouldn't the cast cont...

fit in with the joke?

P- Good Point.

P- What does my %$#')"$ nave to do with it?

(excuse the language)

P- Well, any closing comments?

P-SLAM!!!

P- Thank you once again, your hignness.

P- Anytime kid...(burp).

* This was a test of your emergency interview system. had this been a real interview, it would have been burned into molten ash.

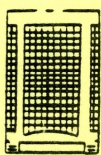

FOR THE THOUSANDTH TIME:

NO... The cast does not get paid to do the show!!!

SO...Please reach down deep into the pockets of the people around you, and give us whatever change you find. There is a collection can at the snack counter. Anything you can give will be appreciated.

-thank you
(big kiss)
