

Resolutions

Two weeks ago at the show, I took a poll among the audience members. The question I asked was, "Have you made any new years resolutions and what were they?". I asked 68 people this question and 23 people had not made any resolutions. 4 people said they would quit smoking, 3 people said they would quit drinking, and 1 person said he would quit taking drugs. These 8 people deserve to be singled out and congratulated for their efforts. You 8 people are doing a good thing for yourselves. Good luck! Here are the rest of the resolutions.

- To better myself as a person and a bed partner
- To have more sex(3)
- To gain weight
- To stop being grumpy
- To make a resolution for next year
- To make more money in 88
- To get more relaxation
- Loose weight(3)
- To go out with a guy with long blond hair(Riff-Raff?!?!)
- To get a real job
- To continue being lazy
