Box Talk

In the last few weeks, our new suggestion box has been very popular. And now, some eagerly awaited responses.

Box- Get the movie in a cinema closer to Pawtucket. I don't mind driving the distance, but closer would help.

Responce- If you don't mind driving the extra distance, what the heck are you complaining for? Besides, it isn't that easy. There is usually a long waiting list to get the movie in this area and not too many theatre owners want the responsibility of cleaning up after.

B- Please make sure you always have a Rocky. Especially on storm weekends. It's boring creating an invisible man.

R- If we get some volunteers from the audience to join the cast, not having a certain character need never happen again.

B- Bring Tim Curry here so I can f--- the sh-- out of him. A Frankie Fan

R- A visit by Tim might not sound so far-fetched if his tour of "Me and My Girl" comes to Providence.

B- Have all male and possibly female cast members learn how to do lights.

R- Another area we are hurting in. Our regular light person is taking a well deserved rest from lights and one night, you won't see us because no one will be here to run the spotlight. So help us. You see the movie free and you have the honor of being a R.I. RHPS Cast Member. Yeah!

B- Bigger squirt guns

R- About 4 guys got together and wrote this down on 4 different cards. The reason we don't let "Big Squirt Guns" in is because some people like these 4 guys don't know when to stop.

B- Have the guys search the girls and vice-versa. Do it.

R- Good idea, but then nobody would watch the movie!

B- Group sex!

R- It's great. Too bad that wimps like you never experienced it.

B- Show "Shock Treatment" as a double feature!

R- Good idea to show Rocky's follow-up as a double feature except...
1.S.T. is not as easy to act out as RHPS is.

2.I don't think the cast, management, or audience will want to stay at the theatre untill four O'clock in the morning. Get the vidio and watch it when you go home.

B- Hello!!!

R- Wow.

B- Sumting down!

R- Some wise guy wrote that because when I told the audience about the new suggestion box, I said "write something down".Get out of here!!

B- Virgin call?

R- There is no verb in that suggest-ion!! How am I supposed to respond when there is no verb?

B- F--ked up bowel movements!

R- Is that your favorite dessert?

B- How about Rocky T-shirts? I want one or two of them.Sell them for $8.00 each. And lip buttons? Please, please,please???

R- So we are supposed to get them just because you want 1 or 2 of them? The management is looking into getting these items, so be on the look-out. We were only going to charge 2 bucks for the shirts,but we'll charge $8 now.
