Praise

Well, here we go again with those wild and crazy suggestions! I am pleased by the popularity of the new suggestion box. We've been getting some funny responses, but we also like serious suggestions that could help us give you more of what you come to the show to see. Thank you all who took the time to fill out those little cards! Keep them coming!

Box- I'd like to thank your group for even existing. Rocky has been one of the few constants in my life during the last few years, as I live the globe-trotting life as a Navel officer. I can compare and contrast the Rocky showings in Pensacola, Florida, Southhampton(a suburb of Philadelphia), and on the Penn State campus, and the Meadowbrook show is easily the best. Rocky folded at P.S.U. last year due to lack of interest among the excess of business major "yuppies-in-training" that have taken over. The print of the movie in Pensacola is so bad, whole scenes have been thrown away and the crowd in Southhampton is just too drunk. I'll be leaving this area soon as my temporary duty ends--I just want you to know that you and your cast are the best cure for the blues in Rhode Island. Again, Thanks.

esponce- It always makes us happy to know that someone out there appreciates what we've been doing up here week after week. Sometimes it gets so repetitious that some of us might wonder why we still do it. But then, someone like this guy comes along and reminds us why we still do it. To make people feel good. Rocky Horror means a great deal more than just a movie to a lot of people and we are happy to fill that empty space in a lot of people's lives. We are sorry to see you go, but what can you do? If you ever get a chance, write to us at the address at the bottom of the page. Good luck, Ron. Glad you could come.

Tim?

We have moved one step closer to having Tim Curry for a visit. It is a small step, but it is a step, none the less. Tim's new play, "Me and My Girl" is under consideration to be performed at the Providence Performing Arts Center. I know because I work there. If the play does come, I am going to beg my boss to let me work every night at the back stage door where I will most likely meet Tim. I will ask him if I can do an interview with him and if he would make an appearance at the Meadowbrook I just hope he doesn't turn out to be a snobby jerk like most people turn out after they reach stardom. If this does happen, it won't be until at least next fall. It is a longshot, but it is possible. MF
