Interview

An interview by Mike Frongillo with Marie Reardon, our permanent Friday night Columbia.

- MF: Hi, Marie.
- MR: Hi, Mike.
- MF: First question. When did you join the cast?
- MR: My first show was on Saturday, June 20, 1987. I played Columbia.
- MF: You were given the role of Columbia permanently on Fridays. How did you feel about that?
- MR: I felt honored. It might sound kind of corny, but I did. I think you have to work hard and prove that you are worthy of the position.
- MF: What do you think is the most boring part of the movie?
- MR: Whenever the Criminologist comes on, it is really boring.
- MF: What do you think is the biggest problem with the cast?
- MR: Responsibility with the props. If you use them, you should put them away.
- MF: Have you done the show in any other theatres?
- MR: Yes, I've done the show at the Cumberland Twin Cinemas and at the Avon.
- MF: How would you describe Rocky Horror to a virgin?
- MR: It is a rock-opera that is based on the old Frankenstein theme. Other than that, it is hard to explain. You just have to experience it for yourself.
- MF: What was the most embarrassing thing that ever happened to you while performing the show?
- MR: One time during the floor show, my breasts fell out of my corset and everyone kept teasing me about it. It was more (Continued)
- MR: (Cont.) annoying than embarrassing, though. Now I do it on purpose sometimes.
- MF: What is your favorite part in the movie?
- MR: When Columbia comes down and tells Frank off before he turns her into stone.
- MF: Tell me about your first night. Were you nervous?
- MR: I was very nervous. I was so nervous that I completely forgot what I was supposed to do. But as I went on, it started coming back to me and I wasn't that nervous anymore.
- MF: Who is your favorite character in the movie?
- MR: Frank N' Furter, maybe Eddie, I don't know.
- MF: Is there a part that you haven't played yet that you someday would like to try?
- MR: I'd like to play Frank sometime.
- MF: Do you ever get tired of doing the show?
- MR: No, so far, not yet.
- MF: Why did you come to see the show for your first time?
- MR: Well, a girlfriend and I always wanted to go see it and I knew this guy in the cast.(me)
- MF: How long do you think you will stay in the cast?
- MR: Until I get tired of it or until the movie doesn't play anymore. Whatever comes first.
- MF: What did you think of the show when you first saw it?
- MR: It was really weird and I didn't really understand it, but it was fun.
- MF: Do you have any hobbies besides the show?
- MR: Collecting candles and having a good time.
- MF: What about sex?
- MR: No, that isn't a hobby!
- MF: O.K. That's it. Thanks, Marie.
- MR: Your welcome! Bye!
