Good News / Bad News

Me and My Girl, the new play starring Tim Curry, will not, I repeat, NOT be seen in Providence at the Providence Performing Arts Center. The touring company wanted to bring the play to Providence for eight shows, but the executive director of the theater doesn't think the play will sell enough tickets to run it for a whole week. So he simply said, "No thanks." Therefore, those Rocky Horror fans that wanted to see Tim Curry live will not get the chance unless you want to travel to New York or maybe Boston. But don't be too upset. Tim has a brand new movie called Pass the Ammo which will be out this spring. In the movie, Tim plays a minister, looking very much as he did as the minister in Rocky Horror. So be on the lookout for that. It should be good.

Bloopers

Watch for these little errors in the movie.

Janet says, "Is he, Frank I mean, is he your husband?" in the elevator. How did she know his name is Frank? No one has told her!

After Sweet Transvestite, Magenta strips Brad. When she takes off his sweater, his shirt is unbuttoned. But the next time we see Brad, his shirt is buttoned up and Magenta is unbuttoning it!.

When Frank kills Eddie, he does not even hit him with the pick untill Eddie is deep in the freezer but when Frank walks out, there is a long trail of blood leading into the freezer!

At the end of the movie, Brad and Janet carry Dr. Scott out of the castle. No wheelchair. But after the castle blasts off, we see Dr. Scott lying on the ground next to his crushed wheelchair!

Someone pulls the curtain closed after Frank climbs into bed with Janet! Maybe it was Fluffy?

In "Dammit Janet", Janet drops her purse in front of her. But when she picks up the ring, the purse is in back of her.

In the wedding scene, as the guests get together to have their picture taken, we see the father of the bride, the man with the white jacket, walk up the church steps twice!

When you see the line of Transylvanians from the left side doing the Time warp, you can see the bottom of Columbia top hat on the floor. But when she jumps off the juke box, it is on her head again!

When Dr. Scott is turned to stone, his blanket stays over his legs and that had also turned to stone. Now can you figure out how Frank got the fishnets on Dr. Scott's legs with the stone blanket covering them?

During Rocky's birth, we see several shots of Riff Raff turning the crank that lowers the color wheel. Right before the blinding flash that gives Rocky life, look at the monitor where Riff Raff is. You can see a reflection of Frank with his arms up waiting for the color wheel to come down. The only problem is, it has already been lowered and used!!!
