

ROCKY HORROR PICTURE SHOW

VOL. 3 NO. 40 June 24-25, 1988 FREE Meadowbrook Cinemas

Welcome Boston

A Hardy WELCOME to the visiting cast from Boston this Saturday night! We appreciate the efforts of these members for forming together and making it down here. While all of these members have been in the Boston Cast at one time or another, they have never performed together at the same time before so they've had to quickly co-ordinate themselves for this weekend. Throw in the fact that they have never done the show at the Meadowbrook before and they've got their work cut out for them! We hope the audience enjoys the change of cast as much as we enjoy watching someone different.

A look at Saturday night's Boston Cast at the Meadowbrook:

- Frank - Perry Martin
- Janet - Beth Graham
- Brad - Chris Short
- Riff - Paul Baxter
- Magenta - Lisa Bornstein
- Columbia - Joyce Kahakalau
- Eddie - Sam R. I.
- Dr. Scott - "
- Rocky - Ginger Boyde

Good luck to the Boston Cast and we hope everyone has fun.

Next: Parade, Toga!

We're not about to slow down now after bringing in our first guest cast ever at the Meadowbrook. We have planned something new for you next week too as the cast & audience holds TOGA NIGHT next Saturday. The cast will don Togas to do their parts, and we'd like to see the audience members join in on the fun too by wearing their own togas. Celebrate one of our favorite summer nights with us.

Monday is the 4th of July! And the 4th of July means the running of the oldest parade in the United States - the Bristol 4th of July Parade. And in that parade will be - US! That's right, for those who havn't heard yet, the RI RHPS Cast shall march forth in the parade with our own truck and float. We hope some of you can make it. We hope even more of you can keep an eye open for us on TV (and maybe even record it, please).

SUSAN SARANDON

Susan Abigail Tomalin was born in New York City on October 4, 1946, and grew up in Metuchen, New Jersey. While attending Catholic University in Washington, D.C., she married actor Chris Sarandon. (The two have since divorced.) Accompanying her husband on an audition, Sarandon was offered a small role—as the hippie daughter of the mad-as-hell advertising executive in Joe—and thus began her acting career. Following a stint on the soap A World Apart, she worked steadily but without serious ambition in feature films, playing innocent Janet Weiss in the cult favorite The Rocky Horror Picture Show, Brooke Shields's mother in both Pretty Baby and King of the Gypsies (Sarandon thinks she doesn't look a thing like Shields), and Sally, the apple of Burt Lancaster's eye, in Atlantic City, for which she received an Oscar nomination. Demonstrating a new commitment to acting, she performed off-Broadway in A Couple White Chicks Sitting Around Talking and then in Extremities. She recently starred onscreen as the investigative housewife in Frank Perry's Compromising Positions and, last year, as an uptight cellist unwound by sorcerer Jack Nicholson in The Witches of Eastwick. Sarandon lives in New York City with her three-year-old daughter, Eva.
