Saturday night is TOGA NIGHT at the Meadowbrook Cinema. The cast will participate with the audience in wearing togas instead of our usual costumes.

We try to do a Toga Night at least once a year in the summer. We found it to be one of the more popular audience events and hope it's popularity extends to the Meadowbrook.

Come one, come all to TOGA Night.

You want MORE!?

Do you mean that, after a visiting cast, Toga Night, and a parade, you are looking for us to top all that? Well, have we got news for you. The only catch is, you'll have to wait till next week for the announcements. The hint is that there are 2 announcements, and both are tied to a famous place. (Perhaps a lousy hint, but I can't say more).

And ... a promise from Mr. Preshow, Jay Brooks, that next weeks preshow will be so good that you should kick yourself in the yarbles if you miss it. If you miss it and chose not to kick yourself in the yarbles, HE will kick you in the yarbles.

He phoned me, from his Hollywood office, where he interviews some of that cities most famous, and told me he's got something special in the works for next week that you are just gonna love!rr

The really big news this weekend, as if Toga Night wasn't enough, is the RI RHPS Cast's participation in the Bristol 4th of July parade, the nation's oldest parade and also the nation's biggest Independence Day parade.

Some people have come up to us and asked WHY are we going to be in the parade. There are 2 ways to examine it. First of all, for us, it gives us a great opportunity to be part of something that is truly great - a parade in it's 202nd year. It's a big parade too. We're not talking about some rinkydink feast parade with a bunch of crap in it. This is a 4 hour parade that is shown on TV. It gives us a chance to let even more people know about our show every week.

Second, from THEIR point of view, they have in us a completely unique group of people who do something nobody else in that parade will do. We do Rocky Horror. And there's nothing else like Rocky Horror anywhere to be found. We also are the state cast for a sub-culture found around practically EVERY major city in the United States. Rocky Horror is played all around the world, and was even made by (ulp! British people, but it was in America that Rocky Horror became something and it is in America that Rocky Horror still is something after all these years.

Rocky Horror is an AMERICAN tradition in what it has become. While some people may look at the cast and the parade as a mismatch going into this, they WON'T when. Not only does it make sense for us to be there, and not only WILL we be there, but we WILL be GOOD.RR
