History Will Be Made

I would like, if I may, to tell you about two very important events in the history of the Rocky Horror Picture Show here at the Meadowbrook Cinemas. First, the Rhode Island cast has been invited to perform Rocky at the 8th Street Playhouse in New York City on august 6th. You may be saying "So what? It is only another road trip." But you, my friends, are sadly mistaking. First of all, New York City is the place where the audience first started yelling lines and the first casts began to develop. Secondly, it is the home of the national fan club. And, best of all, it is the home of the great SAL PIRO. Now you are probably saying, "Who the hell is Sal Piro?" Well, Sal Piro is the president of the fan club, the director of the New York cast, and an incredibly funny man. I spoke on the phone to Sal and asked him if the R.I. Cast could do a show and , of course I expected no for an answer, but due to the loss of seven members of the N.Y. Cast at the beginning of the summer, Sal surprized the hell out of me be saying, "I don't see why not." So on August sixth, on a Saturday night at the 8th Street Playhouse in New York City, The Rhode Island Rocky Horror Picture Show Cast will make history by being the first cast ever to make a guest appearance in the city where it all started.

"Well, that is just great! So what are we going to do in R.I. that night? Watch the movie?" is probably your next question but never fear, for the cast members who will not be going to New York with us will be right here at the Meadowbrook doing a fine job as always

"But I want to see Sal Piro and I can't make it all the way to New York City!" is what you must be saying now but again do not fret, for this statement brings me to my next announcement.

To celebrate the up-comming one-year anniversary of Rocky at the Meadowbrook, Sal Piro will be making an appearance here at the show in Warwick!! Sal, who is in the Guinness Book of World Records for the person who has seen RHPS the most times, (over 1,100 times) will have many things with him to make the night wild.

We hope to start the movie a bit earlier that night. The lobby will be decorated with very rare posters from the movie. We hope to have a big anniversary cake large enough to feed the entire audience. The night will begin with some very rare films that Sal brings with him. He will bring on film; two music videos by Tim Curry- "Paradise Garage" and "I Dô the Rock", Meatloaf's vidio of "Bat Out Of Hell", The comming attractions previews of the movie and the play, The scene from the movie "Fame" starring Sal as the emcee at the 8th Street Playhouse , and, the never seen before in this area, SUPERHEROS. The song

Brad and Janet are supposed to sing at the end of the movie was cut by 20th Century Fox because they wanted the movie to have a more "up-beat" ending.

Sal will, also be selling very rare memorabilia such as posters, books, buttons, soundtracks, greeting cards, and programs from plays and conventions.

He will also emcee and do the pre-show in which he useually embarasses the hell out many virgins.

I, personally, will be very embarassed if the Meadowbrook Cinema is any less than sold out on this gala night on October 1st. This famous man is used to performing for sold out crowds so start planning on being here now. The only reason for not being here on October 1st is maybe a death in the family and even that is a pretty lame excuse. Mark this date on your calender now and make sure you are here!!!!
