

THE BEST OF ROCKY
 "Andy Rooney Goes to Rocky Horror"
 Newport Rocky, V1 #5, May 22, 1982

The other night, I saw the "Rocky Horror Picture Show," and boy, was I ever flabbergasted! The audience was the craziest, wierdest, and least mentally stable group of people I've ever met! Why do they shout and throw things at the screen like that? What about the people who act out the movie in front of the screen? Why do they do that? Anyone who stands up in drag in front of a crowd of raving maniacs, only to have toilet paper, rice and various other assorted objects thrown at them must need drastic psychological attention. And the water pistols. There's another thing that bugs me. I've stayed dryer by going out in the pouring rain without a raincoat. It's funny I should speak about raincoats because I bought a new one a month ago and it's already coming apart at the seams. Shoes bother me too. They're so expensive. Shoelaces. What are those things on the end of them called? Nobody really knows. Movies really bother me too. Did you ever get to the theater, pay for your ticket, have the usher rip it in half, put the stub in your pocket, and three weeks later it's still there? Doesn't it bother you? It bothers me. Nuclear war. There's another thing that bugs me...

Next Week - 2 Pages on Susan

Most people in the audience call her "slut"! Nevertheless, most guys in the audience would drop to their knees if it meant a chance to be with her.

Next week in RIR, we publish our first double-sided issue (not that it's going

From Audience Member to Cast Member

(Mr. Prew interviews Ellen Godfrey)

- Q. When did you first start seeing the show?
 A. At Cumberland in September of 1986.
- Q. That's quite a while. What made you decide to become a cast member?
 A. Well, I decided to become a cast member because I thought it would help me when I go to Star Trek conventions. When I first went on stage I was nervous, so I thought I would get used to an audience.
- Q. Did Magenta stand out for some reason?
 A. I considered many roles and decided this was the best one that suited me.
- Q. What do you like best about being a cast member?
 A. The feeling of family this cast gives me. I love everybody.
- Q. You did your first show on Virgin Cast Night, didn't you?
 A. Yes, I was a virgin cast member.
- Q. Would you have joined if not for that?
 A. Yes, I guess so.

Well, I hope you'll be around for a while.

A MATTER OF PRIORITIES
 BY JOANNE KAUFMAN

Bull Durham's Susan Sarandon may be yet again on the brink of superstardom, but she's not losing any sleep over it: "There are times when I'm very disappointed or I say, 'How did that part slip away?' but it's not something that kills me."

to be a habit) ever. The last double-sized issue by us was way back in 1982 in Newport Rocky.

The article is from a movie magazine that tells us a lot about a woman who, at 41, looks better than ever.
