

Russell Slide
 Picture Show

At loooooooooonnnng last, Russell the projectionist has completed his slide picture project and you will be treated to a viewing of it BOTH nights this weekend. Russell's preview was that there will be pictures of the Bristol 4th of July parade and pictures from cast members in the lobby.

While the wait has been long, bear in mind that when Russell DOES do something, he generally does it good. Real good. It's just that we don't see him that often. Previously, we've seen Russell do Pee Wee Herman and Bettie Juice in the preshow. He did them both to perfection. He has been putting a lot into this. The idea of a slide show probably doesn't seem exciting at first. But with Russell producing it, I'll wager it will be another quality job. Just watch.
