

This is CONCESSION NIGHT

Saturday night is Concession Night. We hope everyone in the audience buys SOMETHING from the concession stand. Get into the spirit and get something. There are a lot of good selections to choose from. Buy a candy bar and enjoy the rich chew while the floor show goes on. Get a popcorn before you sit down. Milk Duds go fast, so get 2. Be sure to sample the fruit punch refreshments. Drink some soda. M & M's are great any part of the show.

The important thing, the bare minimum, is to have something during the dinner scene. What kind of audience participators are you if they are eating in the movie and YOU'RE not eating in the audience? Come on. Get with the program and buy something from the concession stand. rR

100 - 4

It's starting to get here - week 100. Are you making sure you are planing to be here August 18-19?

Toga Night Went Great

Congradulations to cast & audience on their creativity for Toga Night last week. People came up with some fantastic inovations. People have been wondering about Limbo Night. Well, it won't be before the 100th, but it will be not too far into the future. So start limbering up.

MIRROR, it's CRAZY

Hey, how many of you have checked out the mirror in the lobby on the way to the bathroom. It's funny, isn't it. It's shaped like an "S" so that when you look into it it makes your body look all warped out of proportion. Check it out. Bring your friends over & look how stupid each other looks. See what a candy bar looks like in the mirror. rr

300?

Someone said that there are 300 seats in the Meadowbrook. Is that true? Can someone count them to make sure? I was just wondering. rr

.....yet?

You HAVE bought something from the concession counter by now, RIGHT?

OVER

Thus completes one of all-time lesser RIR's ever published. ... Thank You.
