

It's Hawaian Limbo Night

Saturday night this weekend is Hawaiian Limbo Night, which is the same as Limbo Night, except the audience is invited to dress in Hawaiian clothes. The preshow Saturday night will be you, the audience, participating in the open Limbo contest. Last year's contest was a nip-n-tucker, & we hope we get another great contest this year.

A Real Challenge

As we approach week #100, August 19, for the RHPS @ Meadowbrook, we've noticed a REAL challenge in longevity from another movie HERE @ the Meadowbrook - "Beaches." It enters it's 17th week @ the Meadowbrook.

The funny thing about Beaches is that it is a real sleeper. There have been many movies that have come out in the past 10 years with the billing - "Move over Rocky Horror," "the next great cult movie," ect. No one talked about Beaches. But, the movie is hanging in there, being shown EVERY NIGHT, not just on weekends. It's also interesting to note that this isn't some nationwide thing, just the Meadowbrook. Then again, the RHPS wasn't nationwide at first either. It all started at one theatre in NY, and then ...

336?

Mark "KC" Parsons counted 336 seats in the Meadowbrook. Is that the final TRUTH?

In Fashion

Hey! Have any of you heard what's IN? We know drugs & crap like that are for wimpy loser-types, but guess what's in? Hah! You got it - Food from the concession stand! Be the guy with the biggest cup of popcorn! Be the girl with the most candy bars! You'll have attractive members of the opposite sex looking & graping at you if you load up on any of the items sold at the show. Of course, if you want to be called a nerd behind your back - Don't buy anything. But word gets around.
