VOL. 5 NO. 101 August 26-27, 1989 FREE MEADOWBROOK CINEMA

Vintage Rocky

For those of here last Saturday night, you were privy to vintage Rocky Horror, grade A1 quality. All of the incrediants - show, preshow, & audience, came together in a display of what Rocky CAN be. A blustering crowd of 189 excited & well-behaved people enjoyed the show. Let's all thank each other for making this happen, from the audience people for simply being there to all the people who performed little functions that added up big.

Next Big Show

We are now looking forward to week # 105, September 22-23, for our next "big one," as they are refered to. That's the 2 year anniversary of Rocky @ the Meadowbrook. Start priming. RR

Speaking of...

A lot of ovations went out last week for past & present Meadowbrook owners. Present owner Bert received an ovation. Past owner Eric also received an ovation (he also felt the wrath of being IN FRONT of the counter instead of BEHIND it). We couldn't dig up Luke & Sherri, the first owners when Rocky came here.

But speaking of big, there's someone on the horizon who's been here since the begining, and still stands! Someone called an enigma. Someone laying in the woodwork who comes out with occasional flashes of brilliance, only to seep back in. Someone who'd rather speak for him-self, but who may never be granted that priveledge. We're talking Russell people, Russell. rr

Virgin Cast Assembly

Judging by the slots left open in our cast in recent months, it's high time for a Virgin cast night. We've had them at Warwick Mall & at Cumberland Twin, but NOT the Meadowbrook. Well, we're going to now.

What a fantastic opportunity to do the show for the first time, totally screw it up, and it doesn't matter. Virgin cast is open to anyone who has never done the RHPS before. If you've been THINKING about it, now is the time to STOP THINKING. RR

some jokes
