R.I. Rocky -

Hello! This may seem strange, but I'm doing it anyways. My friend Paul: I do a Rocky Horror magazine here and I was going through our 'file' (a bag full of letters, etc!) and I found a flyer of yours from your stint at 8th St. on Aug. '5-6 1988! I don't know where it's from because I was gone (in the States, actually) from Aug. 4 - Dec 28 1988... Someone must have sent it to us, but I don't know who.

ANYWAYS... I'm just writing to make contact with you. We have a cast here in London at the Screen on Baker St. cinema. We have about 20 regulars and I don't know, a few not-so-regulars. We have a full cast except for Crim - our crim got too busy with work or something and hasn't come for a few months now. Our summer has been shit because everyone is off on vacation to the States, Canada, France, India... except for 6 of us! But we still do our show! We're missing Brad, Janet & Dr. S but we do it. Our Riff doubles as Eddie and we have a different person doing 'Genta... God, I'm sorry I'm boring you! It's just at the worst time cast-wise we're getting lots of things to do. Tonight for instance we're doing a Rocky party, but unfortunately only 4 cast members are going so we can't perform. And on Saturday Aug. 12 we're abandoning The Screen to go to the Scala Cinema who are showing an 'All Night Trannie Trash Treat' which is all night transvestite trash! The line-up is Rocky Horror, Myra Breckinridge, Shark Treatment (the only non-tran film), Let Me Die a Woman and Beyond the Valley of the Dolls.

We do a party every few months. They are parties that ~~are~~ pubs put on.

And we find out about them and INVADE and always end up as the ~~the~~ stars! And every 4 months or so the Scala does all night trannie trash... We're all into trash or B movies. Actually, about 7 of us are really into 70's trash - Russ Meyer, John Waters etc. Another bunch are into 50's 'B' Sci-Fi films. The rest aren't really into movies that much. Half of the group are into comics. The same group are also into horror films. Everyone is into Batman in some form (60's TV show, comic, Jack Nicholson film - which opens tomorrow!). A large proportion of us are or are going to be actors, writers, artists, film directors, oh yeah and one photographer! We have plans to do a film with just Charming Underclothes (our cast's name!). Two of us are also in a comedy group. One regular is getting a film of his done in the States next summer and he asked Paul and I to work on it with him. So hopefully that'll happen. (He & I are the ones in the comedy group) We (Charming Underclothes) also want to do plays of our writers' work... which I think will happen sooner than the film!

I guess that's all I have to say for now. I hope this letter wasn't too boring! I just thought it would be groovy "meeting" your cast, so write and tell us about you!

Well, RIR is not just to be found in Historical Libraries, but also shows up all around the world. Anyone interested in responding to this letter can do so. My own response is printed on the back of this special DOUBLE-SIZED issue of RIR. RR
