

THE ROCKY REVIEW

The Cast The Cult and the Critics

Vol. 1 No. 14 October 20-21, 1989 FREE Meadowbrook Cinema

ANOTHER FIRST

Now, for the first time ever, The Rocky Review is being put out on transparent paper! I'll bet you never saw anything like this in the other newsletter! The only drawback is that you can't fold this one up and stick it in your pocket. But I strongly suggest that you take care of this copy of R.R. because someday, this issue will be famous and in great demand, and you can say "I still have MY copy!" (Back issues are available upon request, by the way.) WARNING-- Do not scratch this newsletter as the letters will fall off.

LOUIE LOUIE PARADE

We did it!! We finally won a prize for wearing our Rocky Costumes! We entered the Louie, Louie Parade last Sunday dressed in Rocky Costumes and we won a prize for the "Worst Dressed Band". Hopefully this will be hanging in the Meadowbrook Cinema lobby this weekend. We handed out over five hundred flyers inviting spectators to come see RHPS at the Meadowbrook, so lets hope for a big crowd both nights this weekend!! I also sent a Fax to Lou Brutis of 94 WHJY thanking him for the prize and I asked him to come to Rocky this weekend. I didn't get a response but he did come on the radio and say "I just got a Fax from The Rocky Horror Picture Show cast who won the Worst Dressed Group award at the Louie Louie Parade Sunday but they looked really good and you should go down and check them out. They are a great group of people"

"Go check them out at the Meadowbrook Cinema in Warwick, Friday and Saturday nights at midnight."

Then he started talking about some guy who tried to act like Elvis.

He even led the crowd into singing a little bit of the Time Warp to the music of Louie Louie at the parade. Thanks LOU. Hope to see your newly risen body at the show this weekend! (By the way, Lou, when you were buried alive, how did you talk on the radio when a few cast members were there watching you sleep???)

VIRGIN CALL

We have a very special virgin in the audience tonight. She is someone that I work with and her name is Kelly. Kelly made me promise not to call her up to the front of the theater before the movie started and embarrass her or she wouldn't go to the show at all, so I can't show you who she is. But here is a hint- watch all the women here on Friday night. When you see one turn red after reading this, you will know that that is Kelly!

people have been complaining lately about the music on Friday night before the show is too loud. Have you ever seen the size of our speakers? They are made to be played loud! Simple solution--if you don't like loud music, don't come to the show until about 11:55!
